To Whom It May Concern.

This is to certify that Barnamala Educational and Cultural Society of Puratan Bazar, (Kaushallya), Kharagpur is a registered Social Welfare Society holding Regd. No. S/IL/31091.

I have known this society since its establishment in 2005. The organization is actively engaged in the service of the poor and downtrodden people of Kharagpur.

In the field of Education the Society has made arrangements for imparting free education to the children belonging to the poor families apart from running a free Tailoring Training Centre for poor women.

In the other fields as well the Society has actively participated in the programmes at Kharagpur. During the last two years the Society has successfully organized several Family Planning, Polio and Blood Donation Camps in Kharagpur, which has earned the appreciation of general public.

The Society deserves all kind of support and encouragement from the public as well as the Administration in its efforts to serve the poor and needy people of Kharagpur.

God bless the Society.
